Obituary

Bobbie Jean was born April 18, 1938, to Opel and Mae Hayter, in Tyler, Texas. She was the second born of seven children.

At the age of eight years old her family relocated to California. Shortly after the family arrived in California she received the Lord as her personal Savior and received the baptism of the Holy Ghost, under the leadership of Pastor Luther E. Cleaver.

She completed her education and graduated from Washington High School in San Francisco. During that time she remained a willing faithful and dedicated servant to the Lord and her church.

At a young age she met and married Laforest Simmons, and during this time she was blessed with four children, Linda, Denise, Eileen and Darrell. Denise passed at the early age of six months. Subsequently Laforest Simmons also passed.

Bobbie reared her children as a single parent with the help of the Lord and the guidance of her parents until they were into their teenage years. She provided loving and tender care and support.

On September 29, 1979, she married William J. Mallard, and they shared sixteen years of marriage. During the later years of marriage Bobbie suffered a long period of illness. Throughout this difficult time she demonstrated patience, remained prayerful and unwavering in faith.

On November 12, 1995, the Lord called Bobbie from labor to reward. She leaves to cherish her memory and emulate her life-style, her devoted husband, lovingly called "Dear"; her mother, Mae Hayter; two daughters, Linda Simmons, Eileen Anderson and husband, Paul; one son Darrell Simmons; three brothers and their spouses, Charlie and Helen, Pete and Rosie, Herbert and Erna; three sisters, Miera and husband James Jenkins, Ms. Lee Williams, and Dorothy and husband James Butler; three grandchildren, Matthew and Bobbi Anderson and D'Janee Simmons, fifteen nieces and nephews, a host of other relatives, friends and a loving church family.

Tribute

Oh sister, my sister
Oh so full of life, my sister her star lite smile
My sister her years of wisdom, her gentle nature
My sister oh how you will be missed,
My sister Bobbie Jean, a face as bright
As the glistening stars in the sky
My sister I love you so, through pain and suffering
You did not show to us,
You always held your head so high!
My sister, no one can replace, my sister.
My heart aches so to see you once again walk into a room and embrace, but oh my sister God has a special place for you,
Too smile too shine, to be among other angels so bright
Oh I love you so, my sister Bobbie Jean (Oh my sister)

Love your sister, Dorothy Butler
